Welcome to Using the Smart Board

This site is designed to provide resources related to professional development of the Smart Board. The purposes for this site are to provide a convenient format of training for learning how to use the Smart Board and to provide an opportunity for informal sharing of ideas of this technology in the curriculum.

To navigate this site, the first question to ask yourself is this...

How comfortable are you at using the Smart Board?

If you answered
Not at all or Unsure...
